AUTUMN EDITION 1999

CU Peat Prizewinners

The first female president in the 120 year history of the ICAEW Dame Sheila Masters attended the 50th anniversary dinner of the Teesside Society, along with over 260 local Chartered Accountants and their guests who were entertained during the evening by a caricaturist and magicians at The Tall Trees, Yarm on Friday 8th October 1999.

Andrew Maisey LLB, Miles Middleton CBE FCA and Rod Burt FRICS were guest speakers at the dinner along with Dame Sheila Masters.

Dame Sheila also presented the CU Peat prize to the Teesside winners for exams taken in the year ended September 1998.

Rob Tindle, Chairman of the Teesside Society and partner of Walker Tindle Chartered Accountants said "I am honoured to be Chairman of the Teesside Society on this significant occasion and would like to re-emphasise the benefits and importance of being involved in ICAEW activities at a local level to Chartered Accountants. I would also like to thank all those who attended the dinner in making the 50th anniversary such a success and my partners at Walker Tindle for supporting me during my term in Office."
